REPORT OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE YEAR ENDING 30th JUNE, 1970

THE Council has pleasure in presenting the Fifty-Ninth Annual Report of the Society of Women Musicians.

RECITALS AND LECTURES: Artistically the year has been very successful. We have enjoyed recitals of a particularly high order and two outstandingly good lectures.

CHRISTMAS PARTY: We are most grateful to the Director of the Royal College of Music for permitting us yet again to hold our annual Christmas Party there in the Concert Hall.

Our customary carols were beautifully conducted by Kathleen Riddick, who brought with her Ruth Chappell (flute) and Susan Bixley (timpani), who added an extra gaiety to the accompaniments. Isabel Bedlington very kindly stepped in at the last moment to take the place of Rosemary Brown at the piano, the latter having been laid low by an attack of influenza.

It was with the greatest possible pleasure that we welcomed once more Joyce Grenfell and her accompanist, William Blezard. Their entertainment was sheer delight.

We offer our best thanks to all those who combined to give us such a happy party.

At the suggestion of the Council, the audience was invited at the end of the entertainment to contribute towards the Rebuilding Fund of The Maltings at Snape. The collection amounted to £35. We were much gratified a few days later to receive a charming letter of acknowledgement from Peter Pears.

MASTER CLASSES: It has been our privilege to have had two musicians of world-wide reputation to conduct Master Classes for us during the year. Arrangements for the first of these were sadly disrupted by the influenza epidemic. Nevertheless, Szymon Goldberg made a tremendous impact upon both audience and performers, some of the latter being eleventh-hour substitutes. At Mr. Goldberg's suggestion, the Class ended with a valuable general discussion.

The Class taken by Frans Brueggen was our first for recorder-players: it was a great success. Applications for lessons far exceeded the number available. The lively interest evoked during the day's teaching prompted many in the large audience to participate in the final stimulating discussion.

There has been a great demand for lessons at the Class to be taken by Gerald Moore in October. Preliminary auditions have already been held by a panel consisting of Nancy Evans (Gerald Moore's nominee), Esther Hulbert, Daphne Ibbott, Phyllis Norbrook and the Chairman.

We do indeed appreciate all the hard work done by Noreen Mason in arranging the lessons at these Classes and we would make a special request for more support from our Members, both as performers and listeners, at future Master Classes.

AUDITIONS: Three auditions have been held this year—in October, February and June. Eleven singers, two pianists, two accompanists, one clavichord player, one singer with guitar, one violinist and one 'cellist have been heard. Of these, thirteen have been passed to appear at Ivimey Concerts.

Our thanks are extended to those Members who have served on the auditions panels, including Janet Edmunds, Kathleen Hurran, Daphne Ibbott, Pamela Lewis, Veronica Mansfield, Jean Stewart and the Chairman, and especially to Valerie Trimble, who has made all the arrangements.

IVIMEY CONCERTS: Five Ivimey Concerts have taken place this year. We are very much indebted to Kathleen Hurran, who continued to organise these enjoyable occasions. With her husband, Mr. Dennis Marlow, she was also kind enough to welcome us to their home for one of these recitals. In addition we should like to thank Mrs. Barbara Carr, Dr. and Mrs. Feldman, Valerie Trimble and Eleanor Retallack for their hospitality on other occasions. We strongly urge our Members to come to these recitals whenever possible. Ivimey Concerts offer a splendid opportunity for them to help and encourage performers at the outset of their career in a highly competitive profession. However, it must be pointed out that these performers themselves should do all they possibly can to bring friends to swell the audience.

OPERA BLOCK BOOKINGS: Marian Attwood has been most successful in planning for us many visits to the opera. Unfortunately, it happens, however, that her endeavours on our behalf are made difficult when Members, having asked particularly for tickets, fail at the last moment to take them. The Council has ruled that in such circumstances the Society cannot take the responsibility for unsold tickets and that, in future, any Member who asks for seats for a specific performance must pay for the tickets.

Our group bookings bring the privilege of seats at approximately half-price. A glance at the list under Events-of-the-Year will show what a wide variety of opera has been offered. These occasions give our Members additional opportunities to meet and to introduce friends who may thereby be encouraged to become Members of the Society.

We receive only a very few tickets for rehearsals at Glyndebourne, so we must make these available to Members and Associates only.

PUBLICITY: As will be seen in the Honorary Treasurer's Report, we had, for financial reasons, most regretfully to discontinue the services of our Public Relations Officer, Mr. Archie Newman, to whom we owe a great deal, especially the making of many useful contacts. It was at his suggestion that our attractive brochure was designed by Mr. John Pell, who was also responsible for the new style of events card.

In recognition of Mr. Newman's work for the Society, the Council decided to invite him to become our first Honorary Associate. We are delighted that Mr. Newman has accepted our invitation.

An article about the Society, written by the Chairman and illustrated by photographs of some of our most famous Members, appeared as the main feature in the magazine "The Great Musicians," No. 29 in the autumn of 1969.

DIAMOND JUBILEE: The Diamond Jubilee of the Society falls on 15th July, 1971. Plans are already being made for suitable celebrations. A sub-committee, consisting of the Honorary Officers, Marian Attwood and Joan Kemp-Potter, has been formed to organise a Gala Concert at the Queen Elizabeth Hall. This is to take place on Wednesday evening, 7th July, 1971, and it is hoped that the Birthday Party will be held elsewhere on 15th July, the Sixtieth Anniversary of the founding of the Society.

Some time ago one of our Members, Madame Cappiani, gave us a most generous donation, to be used at the discretion of the Council. We thought it fitting that some of this money should be offered as a prize for composition, and have therefore organised a competition. This is open to women composers of all nationalities and of any age. Works entered should be scored for soprano, harp, violin, viola and violoncello. The last date for entries, which should be addressed to the Chairman, is December 31st, 1970. The winning entry will be given its first performance at our Diamond Jubilee Concert.

It would indeed give us good cause for additional rejoicing if each of us were to introduce at least one new Member, either professional or amateur, before our Jubilee Concert, thus ensuring the increased support, personal and financial, necessary if the full range of our activities is to continue.

EQUAL PAY FOR WOMEN: The Chairman and Elisabeth James accepted the invitation of The Six Point Group to represent the Society at a meeting at the House of Commons on 3rd March. Mrs. Barbara Castle spoke eloquently about her Bill legislating for equal pay for women and answered the many searching questions put to her thereafter.

MEMBERSHIP: We must continue to emphasise that, while the President and Council have maintained their membership drive, the onus for the continuance of the Society's activities rests on its Members. We need still more regular subscribers to meet rising costs and to obviate the necessity of raising the subscription rates beyond the slight increase which will come in 1971 with the introduction of decimalisation.

We are glad to report that eight more members have taken out Life Membership, making a total of twelve. We hope that many others may be encouraged to follow their example.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Alma Goatley, who was President of the Society from 1935 till 1936, and of Eileen Atkins and Joye Barker. The death of Harry Stubbs was reported last year. We still miss him very much. His contributions to the Society took many forms and we will always be deeply in his debt.

HONORARY OFFICERS AND COUNCIL: We were very sorry indeed that our Honorary Secretary, Grace Barrons Richardson, who joined us in January, 1969, was obliged, owing to unforeseen circumstances, to leave London in the Spring of 1970 to live near Tunbridge Wells. It is impossible to say how much we owe to her, so complete was her devotion to the Society, but it was patently impractical from all points of view that she should attempt to continue as our Honorary Secretary at such a distance from London. On her departure the Council made a small presentation to her and wished her every happiness in her new home.

Dilys Orpen, one of our Members, was then appointed as Honorary Secretary. Unfortunately, serious illness in her family obliged her to resign after only four months.

Once again we welcome this opportunity to express our gratitude to Members who undertake special duties: to Barbara Bendixson, for accommodating so hospitably the Council for its monthly meetings, and for catering so expertly for our refreshments at our various events; to all those Members who help her in this exacting task; to Hope Hambourg and to the Chairman for their beautiful flower arrangements; and to all the Members of Council who so willingly serve the Society in innumerable capacities.

The financial workings of a society such as ours are not without their complications. We deeply appreciate the meticulous work done by Muriel Dawson, our Honorary Treasurer, who, in addition, has now undertaken to be our Membership Secretary.

Finally, we would like to thank our President, whose active interest and wide contacts are of inestimable value and to express to our Chairman our special appreciation of the dedication and immense energy she brings to the service of the Society.

DONATIONS: We wish to acknowledge with real gratitude the contributions in cash or in kind made during the year by various Members and, in particular, Fiona Addie, Emily Collins Cox, Mrs. E. Croll, Dr. Feldman, Betsy Frost, Kathleen Hurran, Victoria Kingsley, Hilary Needham, Margaret Paterson, Mrs. S. Wemyss (Sylvia Mitchell), Elizabeth Werry and Seymour Whinyates.

We were absolutely delighted to receive from the Vaughan Williams Trust a most welcome grant of £50 towards the expenses of our Master Classes.

NEW RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION: Inevitably in present economic circumstances some small increase on our present rates of subscription must be made. We count upon our Members to appreciate that it is with great reluctance that the Council advises that this step be taken. From 1st July, 1971, the new rates will be:—

Women Musicians, professional or amateur ...	£2.50
Country Members, living over 50 miles from London	£1.25
Students	£1.00
Associates (men)	£2.00
Life Membership	£21.00
Family Membership	£6.00

To conclude, we wish our Members all possible enjoyment of the Society's activities in the year of our Diamond Jubilee.

REPORT OF THE HONORARY TREASURER TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING ON 22nd OCTOBER, 1970

It is my pleasure to report on the finances of the Society for the year ended 30th June, 1970.

The results continue to show the difficulties which the Society has to face. There is a deficit for the year of £315 as compared to £378 for 1968/69.

The Finance Committee met specially in February to review the financial position. After much consideration, it was decided that the Society could not afford to continue the engagement of our Public Relations Officer and most reluctantly we had to break our arrangement with Mr. Archie Newman. It was also agreed, however, to accept his recommendations for the design of the new brochures, now in circulation. The cost is reflected in the increased expenditure on Printing and Stationery.

The subscription rates were also reviewed at this meeting and you will see in the Report of the Council, the changes to be made in 1971 after decimalisation. Ever mindful of the general interest of our members, it was considered this could best be met by keeping the subscription fee as low as possible, but that in making these the minimum rates, some additional financial support might be encouraged from members who wish the Society well in its efforts to continue its work.

The Council feel that the social side of our concerts is important and that the opportunities afforded at refreshment time to meet and talk to artists and other members is most valuable. Catering has become increasingly expensive and you will see from the accounts the breakdown of costs of these events. In fixing the price of admission the Council considered that the costs should be shared by those who can attend and enjoy the occasions rather than be subsidised from the subscriptions of those unable to do so. The Society's finances would be helped if more members would come and bring friends to enjoy the performances and take pleasure in being back at 4 St. James's Square.

As can be seen from the accounts, our subscription income does not cover the expenditure, which includes some exceptional items for promotion costs which should not recur. However, next year, our Jubilee, again promises to be exceptional and it is hoped that our celebrations may help to improve our financial position as well as add to our enjoyment.

Our main reserve cash on General Account is now the Halifax Building Society balance of £381. Of this sum £270 is earmarked in the Balance Sheet for Rebuilding of Piano. Other investments, allocated as to General Account and Bequests Account are listed in the Balance Sheet. These do not add up to a wealthy position: we expect to find our most valuable and reliable asset in the enthusiasm and support of our members.

Compositions

Composers and performers are invited to send work suitable for future concerts to the Honorary Secretary.

Auditions

Auditions are held three times a year for those members who wish to perform at an Ivimey Concert or other Event, and whose work is not already known to the Council.

Any members may ask to be heard, and should apply to Miss Anna Berenska, 59 Clifton Hill, N.W.8 (01-624 9077). When possible, a public performance will be heard in lieu of an audition if tickets are provided and if the concert is reasonably central.

Ivimey Concerts

It is hoped to hold five of these informal concerts in the coming year. All members who wish to perform and who have had an audition within the past two years, or whose work is already known to the Council, are invited to apply to Miss Kathleen Hurran (01-937 1469). Many artists find these concerts helpful in trying out programmes before public appearances.
